Cindy brings 32 years of experience to her role as AVP – Treasury Management at BLC Community Bank. Her career began in loan operations, gaining experience in various roles throughout her career including Personal Banking, Mortgage Lending, and Assistant Branch Manager positions. For the past 12 years, Cindy specialized in Wealth Management, serving affluent clients, and establishing account relationships related to banking and investment management.

Cindy takes great pride in helping clients uncover their financial goals and working collaboratively to help them succeed financially and take control of their finances. Her approach is client-centric, focusing on understanding their unique needs and providing tailored solutions.

Cindy's advice for new clients:

“Always stay abreast of what your financial institution has to offer by maintaining a close professional relationship based on trust and knowledge of your banking team.”

The best part of her job is forming long-term relationships with clients, many of whom become great friends. It's rewarding for Cindy to see them achieve their financial goals and know that she played a part in their success.

Cindy holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. This expertise helps her guide her clients in risk management and financial security.

In her free time, Cindy enjoys being outdoors, walking, golfing, and snowmobiling. She finds joy in exploring nature and engaging in activities that allow her to stay active and appreciate the beauty of the seasons. Golfing and snowmobiling are among her favorite pastimes, providing a balance of relaxation and excitement.
